

THE AFRICA-CHINA REPORTING PROJECT PRESENTS

Film screening of GUANGZHOU DREAM FACTORY and Q&A with director Christiane Badgley in conversation with Cobus van Staden

Friday 2 November 2018, 16:30 – 18:30
eMakhaya Theatre, University Corner Building, 19th floor
University of the Witwatersrand, Braamfontein East Campus
Light snacks and drinks will be served

VENUE

The event will take place at the eMakhaya Theatre, University Corner Building, 19th floor, University of the Witwatersrand Braamfontein East Campus. University Corner is the same building in which the Wits Art Museum is located on the corner of Jorissen & Bertha Streets in Braamfontein. Entrance to the building is via the Wits Art Museum entrance on Jorissen Street.

Visitor parking is available at the Planetarium next to Yale Road (see below), or open parking spaces if available closer to the venue. The Yale Road entrance is the closest to the visitor parking; the Station Street entrance is the closest to the University Corner Building.

For further directions call Bongwiwe 073 752 4113 or Barry 071 578 3235.